Below is a list of rules and understandings regarding the jInternship program. Please digitally sign that you agree to all of these terms by following the instructions on the webpage from which you downloaded these rules. If you have any questions about these rules or the digital signature please contact yael@jInternship.com.

- jInternship participants are required to participate fully during the full-time learning program through the duration of the learning program. Participants must adhere to all rules of this required component of the program, including participating in all classes and trips.

- jInternship participants are required to participate fully in the unpaid Professional Internship component of the program during the internship portion. During this time, participants will be required to work Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday, up to thirty-two hours per week with their host-company during normal business hours. Additionally, during this time, participants will be required to participate fully in the Sunday night, Monday and Wednesday learning programs and all group weekend activities, as detailed in the Student Guide.

- The jInternship program requires a large time commitment and long days. Participants must commit to attend all classes, trips and work-related obligations detailed below. The Program Coordinator should be notified as soon as possible regarding any absences due to illness, etc.

- jInternship participants agree to review the jInternship Guidebook.

- Participants must ensure their passport is valid for at least six months from the intended date of departure from Israel.

- Participants are required to have their medical form filled out and signed by their medical practitioner at their own cost, at least 30 days prior to the start of their program.

- Participants may not leave the country during the program. Leaving will be conditional to signing a waiver terminating all jInternship’s responsibility to the participant.

- Participants are not allowed to travel to areas under Palestinian Authority Civilian or Military control (areas A&B).

- Participants who wish to go, during free time, to areas of Judaea and Samaria under Israeli civilian control (area C) are required to let the program coordinator know about it several days prior departure. Failure to do so in time can result in being denied permission to travel. As a participant you will receive helpful instructions which will help you stay safe whilst on your trip.

- I know that if, despite the above, I shall decide to travel to the territories or abroad during the period of the program, I will not be considered as participating in the Program while in the Territories or Abroad. Therefore, I know that during such period jInternship shall not bear any responsibility, liability, insurance and security for my wellbeing.

- For safety reasons, it is imperative each participant have a working phone with him at all times.

- Upon completion of the program, jInternship participants are required to complete a survey detailing their participation.

- During trips, participants are required to follow any safety instructions given by the program organizer or tour guide, and be prepared to follow any procedures should an emergency come up.

- Failure to comply with the above guidelines will result in immediate removal from the program - including the internship component – and may result in participant’s loss of return airfare and loss of scholarships.
Program Start Date: June 5, 2017 (flight on June 4th)

Program End Date: July 30, 2017 (flight on July 31th)

I understand and accept all the above terms and regulations for the jInternship program and intend to participate in the program.
